

EquaGel General Cushion

<https://vital.net.au/products/pressure-care-skin-protection/sitting-pressure-care/equagel-general-cushion>

The general EquaGel Protector cushion is made of dry-polymer gel constructed in a lattice design. Designed for users with mild to moderate pressure relief needs. A contoured pelvic area of the cushion provides additional equalizing pressure distribution while maintaining 1 1/4" gel below pressure points. It has unbelievable tensile and compression strength and incredible durability.
